WEEKLY WORDS FROM THE ROCK:

Divine Mercy

Each year, on the Sunday following Easter, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday, and each year, on the Sunday following Easter, the gospel story is the resurrection appearance of Jesus Christ to the disciples and Thomas. It is from this gospel that Thomas is given the nickname "Doubting Thomas." The disciples tell Thomas, "We have seen the Lord." Thomas "doubts" the possibility of Jesus' resurrection. There are many things I doubt.

- I doubt the Minnesota Twins will win half of their games this year (that being 81).
- I doubt the Minnesota Timberwolves will win the NBA title this year.
- I doubt the Minnesota Vikings will win the Super Bowl this year. I am even a little more pessimistic than many others. With so many new faces, it will take time to jell.
- I doubt I will get out fishing twenty-five times this year. Schedules fill quickly.
- I have duck hunted many days over my fifty-six years of living. The only specie of duck I have never harvested is a bufflehead. I doubt it will happen this year.

Please note, if any of the above should occur, I would be elated. I am not a pessimist; I try to be a realist. To doubt doesn't mean I am pessimistic in nature, I just balance the odds of the probability of an event occurring, and I can be wrong. I believe St. Thomas falls into my mode of thinking. This is testified in the fourteenth chapter of John's gospel. Jesus tells his disciples not to be troubled, to have faith in him. He also explains that he is going to prepare a place for each of them in heaven, that he will return (the Second Coming), and take them to himself. In John 14:4, Jesus states, "Where [I] am going, you know the way." Thomas responds, "Master, we do not know where you are going; how can we know the way?" (John 14:5). This is a very good, very fair question. Jesus Christ has yet to suffer, die and rise all of which opens up the possibility of the Second Coming of Jesus. In no way does this make Thomas a pessimist, merely a realist.

And in his post-resurrection appearance to Thomas, Jesus isn't harsh to Thomas. He merely tells him to touch (hands and side) and believe. Whether Thomas places his hand in Christ's nailmarks or side is debated. The gospel of John doesn't provide clarity; however, his faith and belief are unquestioned in his response, "My Lord and my God" (John 20:28). It is a proclamation I hear from some in the congregation when the precious body and precious blood are held up after the consecration at Mass. People's response, "My Lord and my God," leaves no doubt in their minds that this is truly my Lord (the human dimension of Jesus) and my God (the divine dimension of Jesus).

The story of the resurrection appearance also marks another mystery of the divine Godhead. We call this "Divine Mercy Sunday." We see the mercy of God played out in Jesus and his disciples. On both occasions when Jesus appears to his disciples, the evening of the first day of the week and a week later, Jesus offers them, "Peace." I often ponder what it must have been like after all the disciples abandoned Jesus. Prior to his suffering and death, they had been bold:

- Jesus, we will suffer with you.
- Jesus, we will never abandon you.
- Jesus, we will die for you.

Such words are never brought to fruition. They leave Jesus Christ "high and dry." Jesus knows their thoughts, feelings, and deep sense of remorse; thus, he sets things right with his one word, "Peace." That one-word changes everything in that room. The room becomes electric, alive, and their lives change. Without fear, they go into the world never to lock themselves up again. The message of Jesus Christ must be proclaimed.

Such is our story. No matter where we stand or what we have done the mercy of God awaits us. Celebrate that mercy!

Catholic Ministries Appeal

If you haven't done so, please send in your pledge for the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Any monies raised over the goal are returned to each respective parish at 100%. Also, any monies raised over the goal are not assessed by the diocese. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a great way for us to raise funds for our parishes. Please be generous!

Peace be to you!

Father Peter Schuster

SYNOD on EVANGELIZATION & VOCATIONS

His Excellency Bishop Robert Barron has convoked a Diocesan Synod focused on the themes of evangelization and priestly vocations. This event aims to inspire and equip our community to share the joy of the Gospel and respond to God's call in their lives. As Pope Francis reminded us, we have a duty to share the Gospel with all whom we meet as we strive to be witnesses of Christ's love in the world.

The preparatory phase is now in the stage of hosting regional gatherings. All are welcome to attend the session nearest their home parish. For a full listing of sessions, and to preview the questions for deliberation, visit our synod website, which can be found at the homepage of our diocesan website, or by visiting: dowrsynod.my.canva.site

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY - APRIL 27: Encounter the beautiful power of Christ's Divine Mercy with Confessions and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at St. Ann beginning at 2 p.m. Divine Mercy Sunday is always celebrated the first Sunday after Easter. Instituted by Saint John Paul II in 2000, during the canonization of St. Marie Faustina, the feast day is a time to reflect and embrace God's merciful love; especially as revealed to us in the dying and resurrection of Jesus Christ! Don't miss this opportunity to experience God's incredible mercy and love!

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

The second collection on May 10 & 11 supports the Catholic Charities Appeal. Catholic Charities serves the most vulnerable in our diocese-from children and families facing hardship to seniors in need of care and advocacy.

While there are many worthy causes to support, please consider embracing the mission of Catholic Charities. The need is real in Southern Minnesota, and your support is crucial in answering that need. Together, we can provide shelter, food, and care to those who need it most – never losing sight of what truly matters: Community, Compassion, and the call to serve. Without your support, we couldn't fulfill our mission of answering God's call to serve others.

All donations stay in our diocese. Please be generous. Thank you.
