Testing One's Faith

This is a follow-up, part 2, to a two-part series. To review part 1, please read my column from last week under the title "Testing One's Faith." Father Michael Schmitz in an article found within The Catholic Spirit, on April 12, 2018, page 19 deals with the following question common amongst people when it comes to death, "I have been having a hard time trusting God lately. Ever since a family member died, I keep blaming God and finding it difficult to keep my faith. Do you have any thoughts on what I can do?"

Father Schmitz responds, (picking up where we left off from last week)...Most blaming is just that: useless. For example, maybe it was your co-workers who passed the illness on to you, but that wasn't intentional, and maybe they passed on the contamination before they even knew they were sick. What is more, they had to endure the same illness themselves, so what good would it do to blame them? If we think about it, you probably passed the sickness on to more people than you imagine as well. This is the result of living in a world touched by sin, suffering, and death.

If I can't find someone to blame for a bad thing, then the most obvious person to accuse is God. I mean, after all, he is God. If anything happens at all, it is ultimately his fault, isn't it? He created the world. He could change whatever he wants, however he wants, right? God is the easiest target of blame, especially when we secretly believe that God owes us something. But the hard truth is: God doesn't owe us anything.

Now, I want to pause a moment and reaffirm what I said at the beginning. Whenever we suffer a loss of death, this is real, and the pain is real. But to turn this pain into blame is the wrong move. It reveals that we ultimately believe that God is in our debt; that, in order to get our love, God has to do whatever we ask of him.

But that isn't a relationship. And that isn't faith in God. That is more like manipulation. It's less like faith and more like superstition. If I only trust God as long as he gives me whatever I want, then I have revealed that I might actually not want him, I just want what he can do for me.

This is one of the reasons moments of pain and loss are essential for our faith. These times reveal in whom we are truly placing our trust. These moments can serve to clarify our intentions and purify our hearts. You have suffered. You are definitely invited to grieve. But God has revealed that he enters into our pain. He isn't the one to blame for our suffering; he is the one who has embraced our suffering and redeemed it. One of the main reasons why he did this was to prove to us that we can trust him, even when we are hurting most.

I invite you to bring your sadness and loss to the God of the Broken Heart - Jesus, who suffered abandonment by his friends, who grieved the deaths of those he loved, and who entered into the darkness of death himself so that we wouldn't be alone in our moments of abandonment, grief and death.

A Taxi Driver and A Minister

A taxi driver and a minister both died and went to heaven. St. Peter met them at the gate and asked their name and occupation. The taxi driver gave his name and said he had driven a taxi in New York City for 30 years. St. Peter looked him up in the book and says, "Oh yes, here's your name." He then gave him a gold staff and a silk cloak. Next the minister walked up, gave his name and said he had preached for 35 years. St. Peter found his name in the book but gave him a wooden staff and a cotton cloak. The minister was miffed and asked why the taxi driver got so much better. St. Peter explained that in heaven they go by results on earth. Seems like when people got in the taxi they prayed the whole time, while the people who went to church slept.

Catholic Ministries Appeal

If you haven't done so, please send in your pledge for the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Any monies raised over the goal are returned to each respective parish at 100%. Also, any monies raised over the goal are not assessed by the diocese. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a great way for us to raise funds for our parishes. Please be generous!

Peace be to you!      Father Peter Schuster

Your donations stay in our diocese and help us carry out vital work-providing shelter for the homeless, caring for families, and advocating for the vulnerable. Without your support, we couldn't fulfill our mission of answering God's call to serve others. Thank you for being a part of this mission. Your kindness and generosity make it possible for us to reach those who need us most in our communities. God bless you.

The site takes credit cards, debit cards, or ACH through your bank account. Depending on your selection of payment, will determine which steps you will need to follow for set up. The easiest access to the online giving site is through the website at www.acmcatholic.org (listed on the front of each bulletin) and clicking on the green button "Slayton Online Giving" or by using the QR code to the right. Nothing is saved until you hit submit. Feel free to investigate what is available. Donations can also be made to the CMA appeal (this fund will require you to list your parish in the note box for proper distribution). The diocesan appeal funds are also listed, such as Catholic Charities - Peter's Pence - World Mission, etc as these funds are always forwarded onto the diocese for distribution. If you have any questions please feel free to call the office, 507-836-8030. I do appreciate the inclusion of your phone number if you set up an account - that way if a question arises I can call you to verify information. Thank you to the many that utilize the online giving option!
