THE MEMORARE-PRAYER TO THE VIRGIN MARY

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

WEEKLY WORDS FROM THE ROCK:

Proof of Jesus' Resurrection

During the Easter season we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Let us look at a question regarding proof of Jesus' resurrection. Question: I have a friend who unfortunately is an unbeliever. In particular, she scoffs at the idea that Jesus rose from the dead. I really don't think anything short of video evidence will convince her. Is there anything I can say to her that you have found helpful?

Answer: Most people would simply say they know that Jesus Christ rose from the dead because it says so in the Bible. While this is true, it is not really the most correct answer. The proper answer is that we know that Jesus is risen from the dead because the apostles said so. They were eyewitnesses to this fact. Jesus himself attests to this when he said: "Thus it is written that the Messiah would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things" (Luke 24:46-48).

So it is the eyewitness testimony of the apostles on which our faith in the resurrection is founded. Surely, too, the Holy Spirit, assists us who have faith to assent and cling to the truth.

But some, like your friend, will ask, how can we know that what the apostles said and later wrote is true? What if they made the whole thing up or were suffering from some delusion? What if they just meant by the Resurrection that Jesus merely lived on in their hearts and memory?

The best reply to such questions was given in a homily by St. John Chrysostom: "How could 12 uneducated men, who lived on lakes and rivers and wastelands, get the idea for such an immense enterprise of spreading the Gospel worldwide? How could men who perhaps had never been in a city or public square think of setting out to do battle with the whole world? That they were fearful, timid men, the evangelist makes clear; he did not reject the fact or try to hide their weaknesses. Indeed, he turned these into a proof of the truth. What did he say to them? That when Christ was arrested, they fled, despite all the miracles they had seen, while he who was leader of the others denied him!

"How then account for the fact that these men, who in Christ's lifetime could not stand up to the attacks by the Jews, now set forth to do battle with the whole world if Christ was dead – if, as you claim, Christ did not rise and speak to them and rouse their courage? Did they perhaps say to themselves: 'What is this? He could not save himself but now will protect us? He did not help himself while he was alive, but now that he is dead he will extend a helping hand to us? In his lifetime he brought no nation under his banner, but by uttering his name we will win over the whole world?' Would it not be wholly irrational even to think such thoughts, much less to act upon them?

"It is evident, then, that if they had not seen him risen and had proof of his power, they would not have risked so much."

Indeed! And not only did they risk much, they suffered so much! Every one of them, except perhaps John, died as martyrs. They would never have done this for some lie they had concocted or for some dreamy notion that Jesus still lived on in some way in their hearts. Clearly, they were so convicted and moved by the actual fact of the Resurrection that their lives were utterly changed.

And as for the charge of delusion, it may be possible for one man to be delusional, maybe even two, but 12 men collectively having the same delusion? To believe this would take more faith than simply to believe they were telling the truth.

Not a lie, not a fanciful hope, not a delusion, only the true fact of the actual Resurrection can really explain heroic and tenacious going forth of the apostles. These are trustworthy eyewitnesses. Christ is risen indeed.

(Written by Msgr. Chales Pope, appeared on page 19 in the February 7-13, 2021 edition of Our Sunday Visitor).

Electric Motors

Do you have any electric motors that are lying around, and you would like to be rid of? Even with the passing of my father, I would be happy to take any electric motors. You can leave them by the rectory garage in Slayton, or I can pick them up at any of the parishes. Thanks!

Peace be to you!

Father Peter Schuster

RECENT CHANGES HAVE taken place with the Catholic Foundation (CMA), the Diocese of Winona-Rochester, and Letter Concepts, Inc. (LCI), a Cathedral Corporation company, to manage the CMA mailing and gift processing. Nothing has changed in the processing, however, please see the following requests put forth by the above listed:

- * Checks should be made payable to Diocese of Winona-Rochester.
- * We can still process checks made out to the Catholic Foundation of Southern Minnesota but checks payable to the diocese ARE preferred.
- * It is very helpful if donors include “CMA – [Parish Name]” in the memo line.

As always, if you have ANY questions, please do not hesitate to call the office at 507-836-8030. The CMA appeal, as always, remains a tremendous benefit for our parishes when goals are met and overage funds are returned.

* Please note that the current collection amounts for CMA26 will be released in approximately early May. With the changing of how/who is tracking all donations a few adjustments, between the foundation and DOW-R, needed to be made and has delayed the release of the new amounts. Information IS coming!
