GOOD MORNING!

We're excited to introduce a new ministry at St. Gabriel's: Youth Café – Faith. Food. Fellowship. Future.

Beginning next Sunday, September 6, our youth will host Youth Café on the first Sunday of each month following Mass, serving breakfast treats and beverages while creating a welcoming place for our parish family to gather.

More than breakfast, Youth Café gives our young people an opportunity to grow in faith through service. Free-will donations will support youth faith formation, retreats, camps, service projects, and other faith-building opportunities.

Families with children in Kindergarten through Grade 12 will soon receive information about participating. All parishioners are also welcome to donate food or beverages, volunteer, or simply stay after Mass and enjoy the fellowship.

Join us September 6 for our first Youth Café as we invest in the future of our parish—one Sunday at a time.

Scan the QR code or sign up in the back of Church to volunteer or donate.

WEEKLY WORDS FROM THE ROCK:

The Eucharist and the Forgiveness of Sins

Does the Eucharist forgive sins? Certain sins, yes. Read ahead and learn about the Eucharist, forgiveness, and sins.

One of the greatest blessings and least known facts about the Eucharist is that, in the reception of Holy Communion, a person's venial sins are forgiven.

The Eucharist is one of four sacraments that impart the forgiveness of sins. The waters of baptism wash away all prior sins. Both sacraments of healing—reconciliation and anointing—also grant forgiveness. The sacrament of reconciliation grants the absolution of both mortal and venial sins, and it offers God's pardon and peace. And the instruction to the sacrament of anointing says, "If they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them" (see James 5:15).

When we attend Mass, even if we have not committed a mortal sin, we still have blemishes on our souls, the venial sins that we have committed. Some of these sins may be smaller, others may be larger, but they offend God and alienate us from his son Jesus and the body of Christ, the Church. A person with venial sins is still in the state of grace, and he or she is not only eligible to receive holy Communion, but also is encouraged to receive holy Communion. Then, when we receive the Eucharist, "Holy Communion separates us from sin...the Eucharist cannot unite us to Christ without at the same time cleansing us from past sins" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, No. 1393). When Jesus comes to us in the Eucharist, he wipes away our venial sins (see No. 1394).

Jesus made the Eucharist-forgiveness connection at the Last Supper when he took a cup of wine and said, "This is my blood...which will be shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins" (Matthew 26:28). The first generation of Christians considered the gift of forgiveness in the Eucharist to be a foundational belief: "by his blood...[we have] the forgiveness of sins previously committed" (Romans 3:25); "the blood of...Jesus cleanses us of all sins" (1 John 1:7); and, "Jesus Christ...has freed us from our sins by his blood" (Revelation 1:5).

The teaching that sins are forgiven in the reception of the Eucharist is reaffirmed in other writings and the words of the liturgy. St. Thomas Aquinas (1225-1274) referred to the Eucharist in a homily on Corpus Christi saying, "No other sacrament has greater healing power; through it sins are purged away." Preface I of the Most Holy Eucharist in the Roman Missal says, "As we drink his blood that was poured out for us, we are washed clean."

It is important to make a distinction when it comes to the forgiveness granted through the reception of the Eucharist: venial sins are forgiven, but mortal sins are not. The Catechism teaches, "The Eucharist is not ordered to the forgiveness of mortal sin—that is proper to the sacrament of reconciliation" (No. 1395). St. Paul explained the danger of receiving holy Communion when a person is separated from God and neighbor: "Whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord" (1 Corinthians 11:27).

A person with mortal sin is not in the state of grace, and the path to holy Communion is to approach the sacrament of reconciliation first, receive sacramental absolution, be restored to the state of grace, reestablish full communion with the Church, and then receive holy Communion.

When we receive the Eucharist, Jesus extends to us his love, compassion, mercy, healing grace, pardon, and peace. He offers a new beginning, strengthens us in the battle against future sin, and nourishes us to live a virtuous and holy life.

(Written by Father Michael Van Sloun, in The Catholic Spirit, June 21, 2018, page 15).

Do you have any electric motors that are lying around, and you would like to be rid of? Even with the passing of my father, I would be happy to take any electric motors. You can leave them by the rectory garage in Slayton, or I can pick them up at any of the parishes. Thanks!

Peace be to you!

AUGUST 29: The Memorial of the Passion of Saint John the Baptist complements the Solemnity of his birth, celebrated on 24 June. John is the cousin of Jesus. He was conceived when his parents, Zechariah and Elizabeth, were elderly. Both his parents were descendants of priestly families. John's birth took place about six months prior to that of Christ, and coincides with the Gospel episode of the Visitation of Mary to Elizabeth. The liturgical celebration of his martyrdom, which occurred between 31 and 32, has ancient origins. It was already celebrated in France in the 5th century, and in Rome the following century and can be traced to the dedication of a small basilica that dates back to the 5th century where he was buried in Sabaste in Samaria. Tradition holds it was on this day that his head was found. Pope Innocent II had it later transferred to Rome to the Church of Saint Sylvester in Capite.

The king promptly dispatched an executioner with orders to bring back his head. He went off and beheaded him in the prison. He brought in the head on a platter and gave it to the girl. The girl in turn gave it to her mother. When his disciples heard about it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb. (MK 6:17-29)

The motivations for John the Baptist's martyrdom

A woman played the primary role in his martyrdom. Herodias, the wife of Herod Antipas, was the former wife of his half-brother. John was arrested because he had denounced her illegal marriage. During the celebration of Herod's birthday, Herodias's daughter, Salome, performed a dance in honor of the king who remained enchanted and told her she could ask him for anything she wanted, even to half of his kingdom. After consulting her mother, Salome asked for the head of John the Baptist. Herod did not want to do it, but could not refuse: he had, after all, made a promise.
